

I listen to k-love while jogging and in the car totalling about 10 hours a week. The station allows the community to broadcast events happening around the community. This is one of only two Christian radio stations in the area.